

BEGIN THEIR DUTIES.

Something of the New Officers Just Elected by the City Council.

ALL ARE YOUNG AND ACTIVE MEN.

Mr. Davis, Superintendent of the Almshouse, a Widower, But a Vigorous One—Sketches of Messrs. Walford, Russell, and Others.

A change has come over the spirit of Richmond's dreams, municipally speaking, and the people who were that, are no longer so. Others have taken their places. The mighty hand of the Democratic League for Good Government has been felt, and it is hoped by the leaders in that movement that the influence of its blow has been for good. It is a well-known fact that the caucus of the Democratic members of the new City Council resulted in changes in several of the important offices of the city, and that at a joint session of the Council held on Tuesday night these changes were ratified and went into effect. The new officers are nearly all young men of high standing and of more or less experience in public life.

SUPERINTENDENT DAVIS.

It is true that Mr. George B. Davis, the Superintendent of the City Almshouse, is a widower, but he is still this side of the meridian of life. Messrs.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

MR. GEORGE B. DAVIS.

Walford, the Collector of Delinquent Taxes; Hancock, the Harbor-Master; Russell, the Sergeant-At-Arms of the City Council; and the other new officers, are all probably less than 35 or 36 years of age.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

Mr. Davis has long been a hard-working man. He served the people of Jefferson Ward in the Common Council two terms, and had just been re-elected for a third term, when he was selected to preside over the poor of the city. He was born in this city April 27, 1850, and received his education in Baltimore and Richmond. He married in early life, but lost the partner of his joys and sorrows in 1885.

ON THE SOUTH SIDE.

THE NEWS OF THE DAY GLEANED IN MANCHESTER.

Movement Started to Organize a Bryan Club—Death of Miss Minerva Davis—Personal and Other Items from Over the River.

A movement is on foot to organize in Manchester a "Bryan Club." Yesterday morning Captain A. C. Atkinson, with the assistance of several ardent admirers of the Democratic nominee, succeeded in getting the names of forty-seven influential men, who pledged themselves to support and do all in their power to promote the Bryan cause in Manchester. A short meeting was held in the Leader Hall of the most enthusiastic, but the matter of organizing was deferred for the present. The nomination of "the boy orator of the Platte" seems to have met with the approval of many in this city, and judging from the enthusiasm manifested yesterday, he will doubtless receive the earnest support of the Bryan Club.

MISS MINERVA DAVIS DEAD.

Miss Minerva Prosser Davis died Friday afternoon at her residence, No. 5 east Nineteenth street, in the 26th year of her age. Miss Davis had been in bad health for some time, and her illness of late, which had been of a severe nature, and attended with intense suffering, was borne with that true Christian fortitude which alone comforts in times of affliction. She leaves a sister and three brothers. The funeral will take place from West-End Methodist Episcopal church, of which she was a consistent communicant, this evening at 8 o'clock, and the interment will be at Mount Cemetery.

The funeral of Emma Elizabeth, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Westcott, who died Friday morning, is to be held at 3 o'clock from the home of its parents, on Fourth and Lee streets. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. O. Holcomb, of Fifth-Street Methodist Episcopal church. "Sweet Sleep" was sung very touchingly by Mr. W. J. Morrisett. The interment was in Mount Cemetery.

The Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has charge of the very worthy object of furnishing to those living in Manchester who are unable to supply themselves. The heated term is here, and the mission is already contributing many pounds, and their only way of contributing is through the liberality of those blessed with this world's goods. Contributions can be deposited in the boxes in the various stores, or left with Dr. Ingram or Dr. Thomas Matthews.

MR. SIMONS SLIGHTLY HURT.

While engaged in fitting a shafting at the Marshall Cotton-Mills Friday, John Simons, one of the employees, met with quite a painful accident. Simons was standing on a ladder, which broke, letting him fall about twenty feet. Beyond a few bruises, Simons was not otherwise injured.

There will be a reunion service at Oak-Grove mission Sunday school this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at which all scholars who have been absent are requested to attend. Mr. Lee C. Ellington will deliver an address.

At Central Methodist church today Rev. N. B. Beauchamp, of St. James' church, Richmond, will preach at 11 A. M. His subject will be, "What I Saw When at the Epworth League Conference." At 8:15 P. M. the pastor, Rev. W. W. Lear, will preach on "A City Given to Idolatry."

PERSONALS AND BRIEF ITEMS.

The Executive Committee of the Manchester Chapter of Trade will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. William L. Cook and family, of Roanoke, are visiting his parents, at No. 81 Bainbridge street.

Mr. C. P. Best, who had a tumor removed from his neck several days ago, is much improved.

Mr. A. R. Ellington, who lives at No. 106 Decatur street, has removed to Greenboro, N. C. His family will soon follow him.

Mrs. N. P. Constable's music class will give an entertainment at Morrisett's Hall Monday night, July 13th, for the benefit of West-End Methodist church.

Miss Sallie Boleau returned yesterday from Petersburg, where she had been on a visit.

The Misses Phillips, of Deadwood, S. D., and the guests of their aunt, Mrs. H. H. Phillips, are visiting in this city.

Mr. Bland Gregory returned home yesterday, after a pleasant visit to friends in Amelia county.

Mrs. W. H. Jones and two daughters are visiting their aunt, Mrs. W. L. Cox, No. 102 Porter street.

Mr. Willie L. Cook and family, of Roanoke, are visiting his parents, at No. 81 Bainbridge street.

Mr. C. P. Best, who had a tumor removed from his neck several days ago, is much improved.

Mr. A. R. Ellington, who lives at No. 106 Decatur street, has removed to Greenboro, N. C. His family will soon follow him.

Mrs. N. P. Constable's music class will give an entertainment at Morrisett's Hall Monday night, July 13th, for the benefit of West-End Methodist church.

Miss Sallie Boleau returned yesterday from Petersburg, where she had been on a visit.

The Misses Phillips, of Deadwood, S. D., and the guests of their aunt, Mrs. H. H. Phillips, are visiting in this city.

Mr. Bland Gregory returned home yesterday, after a pleasant visit to friends in Amelia county.

Mrs. W. H. Jones and two daughters are visiting their aunt, Mrs. W. L. Cox, No. 102 Porter street.

Mr. Willie L. Cook and family, of Roanoke, are visiting his parents, at No. 81 Bainbridge street.

Mr. C. P. Best, who had a tumor removed from his neck several days ago, is much improved.

Mr. A. R. Ellington, who lives at No. 106 Decatur street, has removed to Greenboro, N. C. His family will soon follow him.

Mrs. N. P. Constable's music class will give an entertainment at Morrisett's Hall Monday night, July 13th, for the benefit of West-End Methodist church.

Miss Sallie Boleau returned yesterday from Petersburg, where she had been on a visit.

The Misses Phillips, of Deadwood, S. D., and the guests of their aunt, Mrs. H. H. Phillips, are visiting in this city.

Mr. Bland Gregory returned home yesterday, after a pleasant visit to friends in Amelia county.

Mrs. W. H. Jones and two daughters are visiting their aunt, Mrs. W. L. Cox, No. 102 Porter street.

Mr. Willie L. Cook and family, of Roanoke, are visiting his parents, at No. 81 Bainbridge street.

Mr. C. P. Best, who had a tumor removed from his neck several days ago, is much improved.

Mr. A. R. Ellington, who lives at No. 106 Decatur street, has removed to Greenboro, N. C. His family will soon follow him.

Mrs. N. P. Constable's music class will give an entertainment at Morrisett's Hall Monday night, July 13th, for the benefit of West-End Methodist church.

Miss Sallie Boleau returned yesterday from Petersburg, where she had been on a visit.

The Misses Phillips, of Deadwood, S. D., and the guests of their aunt, Mrs. H. H. Phillips, are visiting in this city.

Mr. Bland Gregory returned home yesterday, after a pleasant visit to friends in Amelia county.

Mrs. W. H. Jones and two daughters are visiting their aunt, Mrs. W. L. Cox, No. 102 Porter street.

COLUMBIA BICYCLES.

You See Them Everywhere.

On the Race-Track the Blue Rim 44 Model Wins.

On the Road Model 41 is Always in the Lead.

For Ladies nothing can compare with Model 41. It is the easiest "HILL-CLIMBER," the lightest, the handsomest!

The same price to all—$100. We guarantee there will be no change in prices this season. Others have to cut prices to sell the stock on hand. We don't.

WHY? Because we have the "STANDARD OF THE WORLD," and when you ride a BICYCLE that's what you want. The world uses good judgment and takes all we can make.

HARTFORDS are "as good as" the best of other makes. We sell these at $65, $50, and $45. We have all sizes and models in stock. Call and see them.

Ashton Starke, Agent. Preston W. Noland, Manager Bicycle Department.

No. 1422 east Main Street.

(Jy 12)

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

REPORTS FROM ALL GREAT BUSINESS CENTRES OF THE WORLD.

Prices of Money, Bonds, Stocks, Grain, Tobacco, Cotton, Cattle, Country Produce, &c., Foreign and Domestic.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Closing Bids.

United States 4's, coupon, 95

United States new 4's, coupon, 95

U. S. new 4's, registered, 95

BANK STATEMENT.

The weekly statement of the Associated Banks shows the following changes:

Reserve, increase, $5,000,000; loans, increase, $1,000,000; deposits, increase, $1,000,000; circulation, increase, $1,000,000.

The New York Financier says this week: The statement of the clearing house banks for the week ending July 11th, shows a gain of $1,000,000 in the reserve, making the total for the week $22,275,375. This was largely brought about by the gain of $440,000 in deposits, the increase in cash having been $3,019,300, made up of $2,840,000 legal tenders and $179,300 specie, increase, $4,000,000; legal tenders, increase, $2,840,000; deposits, increase, $4,440,000; circulation, increase, $3,850,000.

The banks now hold $22,275,375 in excess of legal requirements.

The New York Financier says this week: The statement of the clearing house banks for the week ending July 11th, shows a gain of $1,000,000 in the reserve, making the total for the week $22,275,375. This was largely brought about by the gain of $440,000 in deposits, the increase in cash having been $3,019,300, made up of $2,840,000 legal tenders and $179,300 specie, increase, $4,000,000; legal tenders, increase, $2,840,000; deposits, increase, $4,440,000; circulation, increase, $3,850,000.

The banks now hold $22,275,375 in excess of legal requirements.

The New York Financier says this week: The statement of the clearing house banks for the week ending July 11th, shows a gain of $1,000,000 in the reserve, making the total for the week $22,275,375. This was largely brought about by the gain of $440,000 in deposits, the increase in cash having been $3,019,300, made up of $2,840,000 legal tenders and $179,300 specie, increase, $4,000,000; legal tenders, increase, $2,840,000; deposits, increase, $4,440,000; circulation, increase, $3,850,000.

The banks now hold $22,275,375 in excess of legal requirements.

The New York Financier says this week: The statement of the clearing house banks for the week ending July 11th, shows a gain of $1,000,000 in the reserve, making the total for the week $22,275,375. This was largely brought about by the gain of $440,000 in deposits, the increase in cash having been $3,019,300, made up of $2,840,000 legal tenders and $179,300 specie, increase, $4,000,000; legal tenders, increase, $2,840,000; deposits, increase, $4,440,000; circulation, increase, $3,850,000.

The banks now hold $22,275,375 in excess of legal requirements.

The New York Financier says this week: The statement of the clearing house banks for the week ending July 11th, shows a gain of $1,000,000 in the reserve, making the total for the week $22,275,375. This was largely brought about by the gain of $440,000 in deposits, the increase in cash having been $3,019,300, made up of $2,840,000 legal tenders and $179,300 specie, increase, $4,000,000; legal tenders, increase, $2,840,000; deposits, increase, $4,440,000; circulation, increase, $3,850,000.

The banks now hold $22,275,375 in excess of legal requirements.

The New York Financier says this week: The statement of the clearing house banks for the week ending July 11th, shows a gain of $1,000,000 in the reserve, making the total for the week $22,275,375. This was largely brought about by the gain of $440,000 in deposits, the increase in cash having been $3,019,300, made up of $2,840,000 legal tenders and $179,300 specie, increase, $4,000,000; legal tenders, increase, $2,840,000; deposits, increase, $4,440,000; circulation, increase, $3,850,000.

The banks now hold $22,275,375 in excess of legal requirements.

The New York Financier says this week: The statement of the clearing house banks for the week ending July 11th, shows a gain of $1,000,000 in the reserve, making the total for the week $22,275,375. This was largely brought about by the gain of $440,000 in deposits, the increase in cash having been $3,019,300, made up of $2,840,000 legal tenders and $179,300 specie, increase, $4,000,000; legal tenders, increase, $2,840,000; deposits, increase, $4,440,000; circulation, increase, $3,850,000.

The banks now hold $22,275,375 in excess of legal requirements.

The New York Financier says this week: The statement of the clearing house banks for the week ending July 11th, shows a gain of $1,000,000 in the reserve, making the total for the week $22,275,375. This was largely brought about by the gain of $440,000 in deposits, the increase in cash having been $3,019,300, made up of $2,840,000 legal tenders and $179,300 specie, increase, $4,000,000; legal tenders, increase, $2,840,000; deposits, increase, $4,440,000; circulation, increase, $3,850,000.

The banks now hold $22,275,375 in excess of legal requirements.

The New York Financier says this week: The statement of the clearing house banks for the week ending July 11th, shows a gain of $1,000,000 in the reserve, making the total for the week $22,275,375. This was largely brought about by the gain of $440,000 in deposits, the increase in cash having been $3,019,300, made up of $2,840,000 legal tenders and $179,300 specie, increase, $4,000,000; legal tenders, increase, $2,840,000; deposits, increase, $4,440,000; circulation, increase, $3,850,000.

The banks now hold $22,275,375 in excess of legal requirements.